HUMAN ORGANS INQUIRY

PUBLIC SESSIONS

The Human Organs Inquiry has been set up by the Minister for Health, Social Services and Public Safety, Ms Bairbre de Brún, under Article 54 of the Health and Social Services (Northern Ireland) Order 1972.

Members of the public and anyone with an interest in the issues which concern the Inquiry are invited to attend any or all of the following public sessions:

- LONDONDERRY, Everglades Hotel
Thursday 15 November, 10:00 am – 5:00 pm
- CRAIGAVON, Seagoe Hotel, Portadown
Thursday 22 November, 10:00 am – 5:00 pm
- BELFAST, Europa Hotel
Thursday 29 November, 10:00 am – 5:00 pm

The purpose of these sessions is to facilitate public discussion about issues concerning past and current hospital post mortem policy and practice, including human organ retention and disposal, and to help shape recommendations for the future.

Each session will include contributions from hospital staff as well as relatives and their representatives. There will be an opportunity for members of the public to ask questions and express their views.

Members of the public who wish to attend the sessions but have special requirements should contact the Inquiry Offices at the number below.

The Inquiry is chaired by John O'Hara QC. The team members are Professor Eithne McLaughlin and Ms Paddy Kelly.
