Q4: NO

Q4a: If certain rooms in hotels clubs etc are designated smoke rooms this will still put workers/staff at risk. How does the government intend to police/monitor this. If hotels become full except for a smoking room and a non smoker wishes to use the hotel what is to prevent the hotel from letting that room and not informing the guest? I feel these type of exemptions should not be allowed.

Q5: YES

Q5a: As long as consideration is given to non smoking residents and staff. Again there is a risk to staff giving care or cleaning in that particular room. How will this be monitored.

Q6: NO

Q6a: Definitely not if it means testing on animals.If you do permit exemptions in this area where is the protection for staff.What precautions and risk assessments will be carried out?
