Supporting Families

1. Do you agree that the aims stated are the right aims? (Please tick)

YES

NO

If no, please state the reasons why.

2. Do you agree that the vision stated is the right vision? (Please tick)

YES

NO

If no, please state the reasons why.

3. The document lists 10 principles that underpin the strategy. Do you agree with the principles stated? (Please tick)

YES

NO

If no, please state the reasons why.

4. The document lists 7 outcomes from the Children and Young People’s strategy, ‘Our Children and Young People – Our Pledge’. Do you agree that these are the right outcomes for this strategy? (Please tick)

YES

NO

If no, please state the reasons why.

Given the changing nature of our community in N. Ireland, with the growing number of minority ethnic families coming here, and the rise in racist/hate crime, as well as the scourge of sectarianism, perhaps the Strategy should state as a further outcome 'that all children and young people will grow in mutual respect and understanding'

5. The focus of this strategy is primarily on preventative and early intervention to support parents at particular times of need and at particular stages in the development of their child. Do you think that this is the appropriate scope for the strategy? (Please tick)

YES

NO

If no, please state the reasons why.

Equality Implications

Section 75 of the Northern Ireland Act 1998 requires Departments and other public authorities in carrying out their functions relating to Northern Ireland, to have due regard to the need to promote equality of opportunity:

- Between persons of different religious belief, political opinion, racial group, age, marital status or sexual orientation;
- Between men and women generally;
- Between persons with a disability and persons without; and
- Between persons with dependants and persons without.

In addition, without prejudice to the above obligation, public authorities must also in carrying out their functions relating to Northern Ireland, have regard to the desirability of promoting good relations between persons of different religious belief, political opinion or racial group.

Where there is evidence or an indication that an existing policy is having an adverse impact on equality of opportunity, or that a proposed policy may cause an adverse impact, an Equality Impact Assessment (EQIA) may need to be carried out on the policy. The process used by a public authority to determine whether an existing policy or new policy needs an EQIA is called screening.

The Department is now screening the proposals set out in this consultation document and as part of the screening process, the Department invites you to consider the following questions.

The Department is inviting responses to the following questions:

- 17. Are the actions or proposals, which are set out in this document likely to have an adverse impact on any group of people in terms of the nine equality dimensions? (Please tick)

NO

If yes, please state the reasons why.

- 18. Are you aware of any indication or evidence – qualitative or quantitative – that the actions or proposals in this document may have an adverse impact on equality of opportunity or good relations? (Please tick)

YES

NO

If yes, please state the reasons why and how these might be mitigated.

19. Does the proposed strategy and actions afford an opportunity to promote equality of opportunity and/or good relations? (Please tick)

YES

NO

If no, please state the reasons why.

Yes, but see also our comment under 'Supporting Families', question 4' above.

Additional Comments

20. Do you have any other comments, which you think might be relevant to the development of the strategy?

As a Family Centre seeking to provide early intervention and support, particularly for vulnerable families, we welcome the initiative, particularly the emphasis on peer support, counselling and advice, mediation and parent empowerment. In a time of rapid change in our society, many parents are confused and unsure as to how to manage their children's behaviour, and will, we believe, welcome support which is empowering and respectful of them as the primary decision-makers in relation to their children. As a community based facility, we will welcome the Strategy, and hope that the relevant departments will provide funding for such organisations as our own who will seek to implement its proposals at community level.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR COMMENTS
